SMITH ACADEMY STUDENTS WHO WILL PARTICIPATE IN DECLAMATION CONTEST TO NIGHT AT MEM-ORIAL HALL

WERTHEIMER

At Memorial Hall, Nineteenth and Locust streets, to-night, the students of Smith Academy will meet in the eleventh annual contest in public speaking.

POST. JR-

The boys have been keyed up to a high tension for the coming event, and a vallent struggle for first honors is looked for. Ten students were selected by the faculty to do the speaking at the preliminary contest held last February. These have been study-ing faithfully ever since, and their efforts to win doubtless will furnish an evening of enjoyment for their friends.

The declamatory contest will be opened with an invocation followed by an overture by Smith's Mandelin Club. The speakers and subjects are as follows: R. Malcoim Whitelaw, 1903, "Virginus's Refusal to Claudius"; J. Stanley Burge, 1904. "Toussaint L'Overture"; Walter M. Crunden, 1904. "The Black Horse and His Rider"; William H. Burg, 1904. "Rienzi to the Romans"; Robert M. Foster, Jr., 1805. "Spartacus to the Envoys"; J. Louis Swarta, 1902. Medical Society, representing Missouri, Iowa and Illinois, is holding its eleventh annual session in this city. The opening session was held this morning, with Doctor Alex H. Ferguson of Chicago, presiding. Mayor Arnold and Doctor R. H. Roodle delivered addresses which were responded to by Doctor Emory Lamphear of St. Louis. Papers were read by C. A. Boise of Washington, Ia., on "Mastoid Disease" and by Doctor W. H. Mayfield of St. Louis on "Tuberculosis and the World's Fair of 1994 Our Opportunity to Ald the Movement of Stamping It Out."

The visiting physicians were banqueted by the local physicians at the Courthouse to-night.

Superintendent of St. Louis Schools Addresses Meeting at East St. Louis Attended by Leading Pedagogues.

Two thousand teachers are expected to attend today's session of the Southern Illi-nots Teachers' Association, which opened its twenty-second annual meeting in East St. Louis yesterday.

The programme last evening started with songs by pupils from the East St. Louis High School. Mayor Stephens delivered the address of welcome and was followed by J. E. Ramsey, of Mt. Carmel, president of the association. M. Edwin Johnson of East St. Louis rendered a vocal solo, after which F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of the St. Louis schools, delivered an address on "Fads in Education."

A chorus by the High School pupils concluded the evening's programme. In the afternoon discussions were led by Frank Coles, Jr., of Albion, and C. F. Easterly of

It was noted that more than 2,000 Missourians have attended the university since its establishment. Most of these are n. & residents of the State.

Branch summer schools will probably be in St. Joseph, Joplin and Houston. In addition, the regular summer school of the university will be held in Columbia. The filling of the vacant law professorship was referred to the Executive Board.

It was reported that Read Hall, the new dormitory for girls, is completed, and will be open for occupancy in September.

Tuition in the medical department was fixed at 150 a year. Under the law tuition can only be charged in the law and medical departments, and the fees-150 in each case—go to the support of the libraries and laboratories of these departments. latter's remarks.

The speeches which King Christian and the Emperor delivered at the gaia dinner at the palace to-night were not of a political character. It is officially announced that the Emperor has expressed himself as strongly in favor of the maintenance of good relations between Germany and Denmark, and that he will not be influenced by the departure from Copenhagen before his arrival here of the Duke and Duchess of Cumberlani. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Austin, Tex., April 2.—The first special session of the Texas Legislature convened at noon to-day. Among the first things done was the introduction of a bill providing for the securing of a new survey of the boundary line between Texas and Okiahoma to ascertain whether some of the Texas lands were not in Okiahoma. A favorable committee report was secured, the Senate passed the bill and adjourned until next Monday. The Missouri Athletic Club yesterday awarded the contract for its supply of china. The Meler China and Glass Company were the successful bidders. The contract calls for chinaware of the Grecian style, with the club's crest appearing on each separate article. The contract is a very heavy one, and the Meler Company were greatly pleased over their capture of it.
